RESOLUTION 30961

A RESOLUTION proclaiming February 10, 2007 as the thirteenth annual Neighbor Appreciation Day.

WHEREAS, even before the 1851 arrival of Arthur Denny's party on Alki Point, and every day since, our region has been filled with good and caring people; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's vitality and livability depends on the involvement of caring neighbors; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood schools educate our youth; share their art, music, sports, and facilities; and involve children and families in community service projects; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood businesses and major institutions provide convenient goods and personal services; meeting places that build a sense of community; and support for community projects and events; and

WHEREAS, all City departments tailor their services to meet neighborhood needs; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's librarians, firefighters, police officers, and staff from the Department of Parks & Recreation, Department of Transportation, community centers, and Neighborhood Service Centers help to sustain neighborhoods by providing local government services; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's diverse population, religious organizations, and ethnic communities invigorate our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood organizations keep the community informed; mobilize citizens around issues, projects, and events; and maintain the energy of volunteerism in Seattle; and

WHEREAS, good neighbors offer friendly greetings, watch out for our families, our homes, and our pets, and lend a hand, a tool, or a cup of sugar when the need arises; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of caring neighbors such as these, Judith Wood, a Phinney Ridge resident, petitioned City officials to proclaim Seattle's first Neighbor Appreciation Day on the Saturday prior to Valentine's Day in 1995; and

WHEREAS, Neighbor Appreciation Day has grown each year as a grassroots holiday observed with block parties, work parties, award ceremonies, open houses, and other events; NOW, THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE, THE MAYOR CONCURRING, THAT:

Section 1. Saturday, February 10, 2007 is proclaimed as Seattle's thirteenth annual Neighbor Appreciation Day.

Section 2. We encourage the people of Seattle to observe the day by reaching out to and involving their neighbors; getting acquainted with those who because of their age, disability, or other differences may not be fully included in community life; and celebrating the neighbors who have contributed to the vitality of their neighborhood.

Section 3. The City of Seattle thanks and salutes the efforts of neighbors throughout the year to help one another and to make their neighborhoods better places. The City of Seattle renews its commitment to the thousands of neighbors who greatly enhance their communities by working in partnership with their government through the Neighborhood Matching Fund, the Race and Social Justice Fund to increase understanding and promote social justice, neighborhood plan stewardship, P-Patch community gardens, creek restoration projects, Block Watch, Adopt-a-Street, Adopt-a-Park, District Councils, community councils, Community Center and other advisory councils, and many other volunteer programs.

1 Adopted by the City Council the 5th day of February, 2007, and signed by me in 2 open session in authentication of its adoption this 5th day of February, 2007.
